

How many times have family-friendly movies been rented out ?

From this chart, we can see that the number of rental times for the children, classics and comedy categories is almost the same. Also, the category with the highest number of rental times is the animation.

The query used to answer this question is Query1 in the text file

How many family-friendly movies within each rental duration category ?

The rental duration category represents the number of rental days, in which 1 means the lowest rental duration and 4 means the highest. As shown in the chart, all the 4 categories have the same number of family-friendly movies.

The query used to answer this question is Query2 in the text file

How many rental orders per store during all the months?

From this chart, we can see that both stores have almost the same number of rental orders for every month.

The query used to answer this question is Query3 in the text file

How much did the top 10 paying customers paid during 2007 ?

From the chart, we can see that the range of the customers payment is between 150 and 210. Also the top paying customer of the year 2007 is Eleanor Hunt with a payment of 210

The query used to answer this question is Query4 in the text file